

ROTARIANS AGAINST MALARIA

Code of Conduct

Introduction

In keeping with its vision and values, Rotarians Against Malaria is committed to maintaining the highest degree of ethical conduct amongst all its staff and associated personnel. To help increase understanding, this Code of Conduct Details Rotarians Against Malaria's expectations of employees in key areas.

Scope and purpose

This Code of Conduct applies to all contracted staff, international and local, employed by Rotarians Against Malaria. Adapted Codes of Conduct are applicable to volunteers, partners, contractors and suppliers.

The purpose of this Code of Conduct is to set out the conduct expected of Rotarians Against Malaria staff whilst under contract to the organisation, and forms part of all contracts of employment. The Code is applicable at all times. Breaches of the Code of Conduct are grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.

Whilst recognising that local laws and cultures differ considerably from one country to another, Rotarians Against Malaria is an International Non-Governmental Organisation, and therefore the Code of Conduct is developed from international and UN standards. Rotarian Against Malaria are expected to uphold local law wherever they operate, except where the Code of Conduct is more stringent, in which case the Code applies.
